From the Telegraph.
T. C. Patterson, editor of the North Platte Telegraph was in the city last Saturday, and made this office a brief visit.

H. L. Walsh, editor of the North Platte Nebraska and chairman of the democratic central committee of Lincoln county was in the city Tuesday cloaked with some of the democratic politicians. Look out for something to drop.

There are twenty-one candidates for the county offices of Cheyenne county and only eight offices to be filled. The Telegraph offers one year's subscription free to the man who will come nearest naming the winning eight. Write the eight names on a slip of paper with your own name and mail them to this office where they will be kept sealed until the day after election. Mark three crosses in the corner of the envelope.

The item in our news columns in relation to the first load of Cheyenne county corn being brought to market is significant. A year ago even last spring, we were told that corn would not grow in Cheyenne county. Yet we see a man with a forty acre field of sod corn which yields twenty-five bushels to the acre. With such results as this the future of Cheyenne county can readily be surmised and that future is no less welcome because it was so little expected so short a time ago.

Sunday night Joe Crawford, who had been employed by Mr. E. Witcher, of Antelopeville, stole a span of mules, harness and wagon belonging to the latter and decamped. Telegrams were sent to Deputy Sheriff John Carley at Sidney and Tuesday afternoon Mr. Carley nabbed the man with the mules. Mr. Witcher came in from Antelope on No. 2 and Crawford was given a preliminary hearing before Justice Shuman who sent him to jail to await the action of the district court. Mr. Witcher praises the deputy sheriff for the promptness and care he exhibited in handling the case and is well pleased with the outcome of the affair.

Wednesday afternoon at Winter's saloon W. M. Dodson shot Swan Detrick in the shoulder. Dodson and Detrick had some words, the cause of the quarrel being a woman. Dodson was standing bar, came around from behind the bar and threatened to put Detrick out. The latter picked up a spittoon, but set it down again as soon as Dodson returned to his place behind the bar. There was an old quarrel between the two on the same subject, and Dodson who is quick tempered, grabbed a pistol, and as some claim struck at Swan across the bar, the pistol going off and the ball entering his left shoulder. Swan Detrick says he did not know that Dodson had a pistol or intended to shoot him until he was shot. Dodson has nothing to say only that he considers himself justified in defending himself.

Dr. Ewen was called and dressed the wound, but did not probe it. The ball is thought to have lodged near the neck. The wounded man is getting along very comfortably and the wound is not considered dangerous. Dodson was arrested shortly after the shooting by Sheriff Fowler, and gave bond for his appearance. At the preliminary examination Thursday morning he waived examination and was bound over to the district court.

Arthur B. Lewis, editor of the Greeley Tribune, and superintendent of public instruction of Greeley county, having perpetrated swindles upon a number of his friends, to the amount of several thousand dollars, has shipped out among the principal losers are S. N. Wolbach, of Grand Island $185; Citizens Bank, Central City, $150; H. A. Babcock, $325; and Willie Weekes, of Greeley county, $1,600. Mr. Lewis left Scottia, on Monday the 12th, as he said, for Lincoln to attend the State convention, and from there nothing has been heard of him. The Merchants Bank, of Scottia, held a mortgage on the printing material of the Tribune, on which they closed Saturday afternoon, and it will probably be sold at sheriff's sale to satisfy the mortgage. Everything Lewis had was about to take place, when the stern parent swooped down upon the scene and escorted the young lady home. The last heard from the other party to the muss was that he would be back again soon, and would then take the girl with him or bust.—Central City Nonpareil.

An elopement! No, not quite that, but there came near being one Saturday night. A young man, a former resident of this place, who now resides at a neighboring town, had wooed and won the heart of one of our young ladies, and on Saturday came to Central City for the purpose of taking his affianced to his home and making her his wife. The objection of paternalists standing in the way of a happy and harmonious wedding, a meeting was arranged and was about to take place, when the stern parent swooped down upon the scene and escorted the young lady home. The last heard from the other party to the muss was that he would be back again soon, and would then take the girl with him or bust.—Central City Nonpareil.

Wolves are getting bad in the German neighborhood west of us. They have destroyed forty pigs for August Rath and a great deal of poultry and young stock for other farmers. A turnout among the farmers would be a good thing. It is suggested by a friend that a day be set for a grand hunt to exterminate them.—Sterling Press.

Pipes and all kinds of fixtures for pipes at Schmalzried & Hinton's.

Mr. Fiemer reports that a farmer living northwest of Holdrege a few miles, killed thirty-three rattlesnakes last week. They had taken possession of an abandoned prairie dog town.—Holdrege Nugget.

A lady who has kept a record of the time elapsing between rains since her arrival here last April says that nineteen days is the longest period during which we have been without rain.—Culbertson Sun.

The Plattsmouth Journal says that "the state democracy is, as of old, face to face with the enemy." This is a gratifying piece of intelligence. The democrats of Nebraska are generally on the run with their backs to the enemy.

Last Friday a large gray eagle swooped down on the poultry yard of P. G. Tyler, who lives in K precinct. Mrs. Tyler ran out, and seizing a club, knocked the bird down and killed it. It was brought to Seward on Saturday and bought by John Zimmerer, who will have it mounted. The bird is a large one measuring seven feet from tip to tip of its wings.—Seward Reporter.

From a private source we learn that the youth who was appointed to a naval cadetship from the Second Nebraska District, has got his foot in it at Annapolis. On arriving at the academy he, of course, was put through the hazing process, and to use a slang expression "squealed on the boys," which has raised a little row. All the cadets are now making it about as warm for him as possible and the end is not yet.—Hastings Gazette.

From J. C. Lewis, who came down from the north Thursday afternoon, we learn of a sad accident which happened at Pierce at 9 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Campbell, the liverman of the town, was in the office of the constable, who was at that time cleaning his shotgun. After the weapon had been carefully cleaned, it was loaded up with a heavy load, and in careless handling it was discharged, the contents striking Campbell, and tearing off the top of his head, scattering his brains all over the walls, and unnecessarily to state, killing him instantly.

There are in Utah 12,000 polygamists according to President Taylor. It is clear that the Territorial penitentiary must be enlarged.

The English language contains over 38,000 words, and yet when a man wishes to stop a street car he cannot think of anything better to say than "Hi!"

The New York bank statements of last week show a reserve decrease of six million. Banks now hold thirty-one million in excess of legal requirements.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Coon in compliance with a request from Secretary Manning has handed in his resignation. It was done for political reasons only.

In the single scull race between Teemer and Hanlin at McKeesport last Saturday Teemer won by eleven lengths. The time was 21:13, the distance being three miles and a turn.

In a game of ball played at Cincinnati Saturday between the St. Louis Browns and the Chicago, for the championship of the world the former club won by a score of 13 to 4.

Human lives are valued at $5 apiece in Pennsylvania; at least a mine boss who was convicted at Wilkesbarre of causing the death of ten men went free after paying a $50 fine.

Oscar Wilde says: "The American girl is the prettiest despot in the world. She seems to me to be a little oasis of picturesque unreasonableness in a desert of common sense."

"A Denver Chinaman, who stumbled over a nest of hornets," says the New York Sun, "was seen flying down the street yelling: 'Joss! Dam! Melican hellee, free birds!'"

A noticeable migration of Chinese from the west to the east is noted. Since the Wyoming massacre not less than 500 are said to have gone into New York and Philadelphia.

An Indian youth of the Kiowa tribe is being educated for the ministry by the Presbyterians of Carlisle, Penna. He belonged to the Indian training school at that place.

Detectives now travel on the Pennsylvania Railroad trains with orders to arrest all persons found stealing rides. This will save many lives and limbs and effectually break up the ride-stealing business heretofore extensively indulged in by tramps.

Andrew Carnegie, of Pittsburgh has given the workmen of the Keystone bridge works a house and lot worth $25,000 dollars to be used as a public library and meeting place for the men, and a cash gift of $1,000 toward buying the books necessary for a library.

The hostility of the New York Times to Senator Sherman has been traced back to its starting point and found to date from the time when Sherman, as secretary of the treasury, made Jones, the owner of the Times, pay duty on a large quantity of goods he was caught trying to smuggle into the country.

The democrats boasted last year that they had killed the republican party; but the grand old party persistently refuses to stay dead. The election of Logan in Illinois, the recent victory in Ohio and the excellent prospects in New York are evidence of a pretty lively corpse.

John Sherman will now be one of the three men elected to five full terms to the United States Senate. Thomas H. Benton of Missouri, was the only man who served thirty consecutive years in the senate. Henry B. Anthony was elected to five full consecutive terms to the senate by Rhode Island, but he died soon after entering his fifth term.

England is apparently preparing to acquire the kingdom of Burmah. The declared purpose of the British government is only to depose the present king, and raise up a new ruler who will be controlled by a resident and be thoroughly subservient to British interests. The actual absorption of Burmah will come later.

The National bank and government of Mexico have finally come to an agreement, greatly to the relief of the business community. The bank will now resume full operations. The government now agrees to give the bank 7 1/2 per cent of customs and revenues, beginning with November, the Vera Cruz custom house not to be included until the beginning of the new report.

The Fusion candidate for auditor of Wayne county, Ia., has just been caught short about a thousand dollars in his accounts, he being the incumbent of the office. They do all seem to be tarred and feathered with the same stick. In this case the rascal was allowed to pay up, and will probably not be jailed.

Omaha is troubled with thieves, thugs, foot-pads and other disreputable characters. Street cars are stopped and the drivers robbed at the muzzle of revolvers; houses are entered and the inmates' belongings and all of these things within a week. The Herald of that city calls loudly for better police protection and throws out suggestive hints of vigilant committees.

General Manager Callaway, of the Union Pacific says that all reports of a threatened coal famine in the district dependent upon the company's mines are untrue. The needs of the road will be supplied from Iowa and Missouri, while the output from Wyoming and Colorado, although a trifle short at present will be soon ample to meet all custom demands.

A stock train on the Chicago Burlington & Quincy the other night crossed the state of Iowa from the Missouri to the Mississippi, a distance of 290 miles, in seven hours and twenty-one minutes. This is at the extraordinary rate of 39.4 miles per hour. The train consisted of seventeen cars, equipped with air brakes. At the end of the run the contents must have been "jerked beef."

"No, sir," said a gentleman from Arkansas, as he sat down in the sanctum chair yesterday and elevated his boots with the firmness and grace belonging to his citizenship. "The fact that mobs are in the habit of burning people alive in jail down in my state is no reflection on the civilization of my state. It is merely an efficient and emphatic reminder to the criminal class that a jail is a healthy place to stay out of. We don't have any Ford Ward parlor bed rooms and forty dollars a day board attached to the reformatory institutions of our state."

The reports from the iron industry in the Lehigh Valley, Pennsylvania, are of an exceedingly encouraging nature. It is said that the preparation of mills in order to resume work continues steadily, and that nearly every day adds another mill to those in which it is expected that work will soon begin. There has not been a more cheering piece of information in a long time. It confirms the favorable reports which we have heard in an indefinite sort of way for several months past. When the iron mills start up we may feel assured the return of prosperous times is near.

The legislature of Ohio will have 37 senators and 110 representatives. Fifteen counties in the state have not been heard from officially, yet enough is known to make it certain that counting Hamilton county as giving 4 democratic senators and 10 democratic representatives, the senate will stand democrats, 20; republicans 17; while the house will be democrats, 52; republicans 58. This will make the complexion of the legislature on joint ballot republican. No change from this adversely to the republicans is likely to occur. Contests will likely seat the entire republican delegation from Hamilton county.

You may not be aware of it, but it's a fact that many of the medicines recommended for croup contain either chloroform or opium, and cannot be given to children in the large and frequent doses required. In cases of croup, with any degree of safety. They are dangerous and should be avoided at all times. There is one preparation, however, that does not contain a single ingredient that would injure a child, and it is certain and positive cure for croup, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has cured thousands of cases and can always be depended upon. Sold by Gray & Co.

A Brooklyn landlady accidentally put kerosene in her coffee the other morning and was much mortified when her boarders unanimously congratulated her upon the improvement thereby created.—New York Graphic.

The prospects of a splendid building season in 1886 are getting brighter every day. The future of Hastings is assured, and nothing can prevent her from becoming a city of 30,000 inhabitants inside of ten years.—Hastings Gazette.

From behind the counter the salesman and the saleslady are as impassive as ever, and we all feel, probably, something akin to dread at proposing the purchase of an article lest the transaction involved some trouble on their part.—Philadelphia Press.

Sutherland Edwards has published a novel called "What is a Girl to Do?" That depends somewhat; if she wants to climb over a fence she is to look cautiously in every direction, gather her skirts in one hand, then change her mind and crawl under.—Binghamton Republican.

Dr. Townsend a methodist clergyman at Buffalo has resigned his charge because he does not believe in eternal punishment. And a great number of clergymen who don't believe in it any more than he does, but who lack this manliness, are stoning him from a safe distance.—Philadelphia Record.

The Romanist, the Episcopalian, and all the Protestant sects, are too busy building hospitals, founding schools and co-operating societies, and reforming the drunkard and the prostitute, to argue about the old tenets for which they used to shoot and burn each other.—Philadelphia Press.

The Right of Way.

The most satisfactory evidence that the new railroad, the Grand Island & Wyoming Central, means business is the fact that they have already commenced the purchase of the right-of-way from the new road north west from this place. Yesterday Mr. L. M. Bennett who owns the first section of land adjacent to the city limits received payment from the company, and other land through which the line is surveyed will be bought as rapidly as possible. G. W. Holdrege, J. G. Taylor and C. D. Dorman, in behalf of the incorporation, gives notification that books for subscription to stock in the same will be opened at the company's office in Grand Island, the capital stock as provided in the articles of incorporation amounting to over $7,000,000. That the new corporation means business there no longer exists a doubt, and Grand Island has just cause to feel elated over the railroad prospects, this new line, and one or two prospective ones insure the city.—G. I. Independent.

New Plan for Transporting Emigrants.

A circular has just been issued by J. W. Morse, general passenger agent of the Union Pacific railroad, announcing an important change in the traveling accommodations offered by that road. The circular announces that beginning with the date of the circular October 13th, the third class emigrant tickets of the road will be honored for passage on express trains, not only over their lines, but also over those of their western connections. Emigrant sleeping cars, with free births, are provided as before, except that these are attached to fast express trains, instead of freight trains, at Ogden. A passenger holding a third class or
